

“A bottle of wine begs to be shared...”

These were the life-affirming words of Clifton Fadiman, American intellectual and connoisseur of the delicious libation. We at 1884 Dock Street Kitchen couldn't agree more with this sentiment, and such passion has resulted in the founding of our exclusive Wine Society.

It's true that the word 'exclusive' can be used copiously and without justification, but with only twelve wine lockers available, each with its own individual vintage, you will be a genuine 1884 Dock Street Kitchen VIP. Such a prestigious status can also be experienced by your clients, friends and family, even when dining without you. Simply arrange for a bottle to be delivered from your locker to their table and make their visit even more memorable.

The wine lockers are located beside our elegant bar, each proudly displaying a plaque engraved with its owner's name. Contained within will be one bottle of an exclusive vintage:

Locker 1.	Henriot: Cuvée des Enchanteurs 1998
Locker 2.	Giacomo Ascheri: Barolo Sorano 2007

Clifton Fadiman shared another pearl of wisdom in his time:

“To take wine into our mouths is to savour a droplet of the river of human history.”

Beautifully put. At 1884 Dock Street Kitchen, with surroundings rich in maritime heritage blending seamlessly with our innovative approach to offering first-class food and drink, we're making history of our own. Please, do come join us in celebrating it.
